

BMW Picks 2011

The players picked here may or may not be the best players in the world. The players chosen either finished in the top 20s or better in recent events or finished in the top 20 at the BMW over the past few years.

Webb Simpson – Possibly the hottest player in the world right now.

Jason Day - Day is playing solid golf with 2 top 10 finishes in his last 4 starts.

Dustin Johnson - Although Johnson finished 42nd at the Deutsche Bank, he won the Barclay's the week prior and he won the BMW last year, solid play and a somewhat horse for the course.

Jim Furyk - Furyk has 2 top 10s in his last 3 starts and hasn't finished outside the top 15th at the BMW since the Fedex Cup Playoffs began in 2007, a definite horse for the course.

Luke Donald - Donald has 3 top 10s and 2 top 20s in his last 5 starts. However, he doesn't have the best track record at the BMW with only 1 top 10 finish in 3 starts. But he is still number 1 in the OWGR.

Matt Kuchar - Kuchar is somewhat a horse for the course having finished 10th and 3rd in his 2 starts at the BMW. He's playing solid, however, only has 1 top 10 finish in his last 5 starts.

Camilo Villegas – Villegas is starting to play his best golf over the past few weeks with 2 top 10 finishes and a 25th finish at the Deutsche Bank. He won the BMW in 2008, and his other finishes at the BMW are 11th, 8th and 7th.

Adam Scott – Scott has posted 3 top 10 finishes over his last 4 starts, including a win. He's somewhat a horse for the course with a 4th place finish in '07 and a 15th last year.

Brandt Snedeker – Snedeker is a hot player right now after posting 3rd place finishes in his last 2 events. And, he finished 10th at the BMW in '09 and 14th in '07.

Steve Stricker – Although he isn't exactly posting top 10s lately or any over his last 5 tournaments entered, Stricker could be considered a horse for the course with 3 top 10 finishes at the BMW.
