

Deutsche Bank Picks 2011

The players picked here may or may not be the best players in the world. The players chosen either finished in the top 20s or better in recent events or finished in the top 20 at the Deutsche Bank over the past few years.

Webb Simpson – Another top 10 for Simpson last week at Barclay's. Simpson has posted top 10 finishes in 3 out of the past 4 tourneys he's played.

Charley Hoffman – Hoffman is the defending champion and posted a top 10 finish last week at the Barclay's.

Adam Scott – Scott finished 67th last week after 4 good starts, with the extra time off, he should come ready to contend for Deutsche Bank.

Nick Watney – Watney is playing solid golf over his past 5 starts, finishing in the top 25 in 4 of them, including a win.

Luke Donald - Donald has 2 top 10s and 2 top 20s in his last 4 starts. And, he finished 2nd at the Deutsche Bank last year. Solid.

Matt Kuchar - Kuchar finished 2nd last week after posting 2 top 20 finishes in a row. Perhaps he's ready to go on a top 10 streak over the playoffs, and maybe get a win in the process.

Steve Stricker - Stricker is just solid in the playoffs year in and year out, it seems he's in contention every time he plays. He's almost always a solid pick with a chance to win.

Jason Day – Day is in a great position to win this week. He posted a top 15 last week and each year he plays at the Deutsche Bank he finishes better.

Charl Schwartzel - Schwartzel seems to have found his game again with a top 15 finish last week after a not so good 53rd place at the PGA.

Others to consider:

Camilo Villegas, Ernie Els, Phil Mickelson, Gary Woodland, Sergio Garcia, Vijay Singh, Brandt Snedeker, Jim Furyk, Jonathan Byrd, Brian Davis